

TAFE Lismore II Holistic Management Training – April 2013

Session 1	3/4 April	Introduction History of Holistic Management and its success How we think and change – power of Paradigms Ecosystem function – how nature functions holistically Tools for making change to our environment Diagnosing the Root Cause of problems What is causing Biodiversity loss
Session 2	18/19 April	Review ecosystem function and the tools Assessment task 1 Holistic Diagnosis of environmental problems The change process Personal profiling - what moves you Conventional decision making Holistic goal formation and goal setting
Session 3	6/7 May	Review and photos Testing questions Testing decisions using a testing matrix Testing decisions – personal examples
Session 4	18/19 June	Review and photos Generic non-growing grazing planning Feed budgets and plant monitoring Paddock walk and practical feed budgeting
Session 5	1/2 July	Introduction to Holistic Financial planning Generic small business financial plan example Review non-growing grazing plan Biological monitoring theory Paddock walk - set up a bio-monitoring site
Session 6	22/23 July	Generic growing season grazing planning Individual grazing planning for non-growing Computer aids for grazing planning Review individual biological monitoring results
Session 7	5/6 Aug	Financial planning - actual individual plans Grazing Planning – assess and review
Session 8	26/27 Aug	Financial planning - actual individual plans Holistic Land planning process group exercise Review, assessment, evaluation